

Movement from Elementary to Middle to High School

When transferring to middle school, students must be residing in the elementary school catchment(s) that flow into the respective middle schools. Out-of-district students must apply as an out-of-district student and are not automatically transferred.

Early and Late French Immersion

Students must be residents of New Westminster to be transferred to the next school.

